

cresseyk@mersd.org

Room A 224

Español con Señora Cressey

Goals: You will be able to:

- *Speak and write about yourself in the present tense about themes that are of interest to teens like you!
- *Ask and answer basic questions, and have conversations with friends in Spanish.
- *Learn about how others live in Spanish speaking countries, and hear about my awesome adventures while living in Spain. There will be lots of culture to spice things up!
- *Continue to build your vocabulary.

Words of Advice for a Positive Experience:

- *Be prepared for class with necessary materials.
- *Be kind, positive, helpful, do your best, be patient, participate & have fun!
- *Check Google Classroom for daily assignments & classwork.
- *Reach out to me! I'm happy to help!
- *Review vocabulary 5-10 min each night.
- *Follow online learning school procedures and guidelines. (Team review)
https://docs.google.com/drawings/d/1hGrgQeO1IbOpAu3xo_N5QLCFRXuQn0Ur_Mcu4N_vHD4/edit

No student has the right to take away the learning experience from other students by being disrespectful, or distracting. The expectation is that all students behave themselves properly to foster a positive learning environment. Parents will be contacted immediately for breaking our class code of conduct.

Class info.

* Textbook Realidades chapters 1A-4B. You will have online access to activities through Google Classroom.

* Practice of 4 skills: reading, listening, writing, and speaking.

* Speaking in the target language as much as possible, with an understanding that students may need communication in English more often with online learning.

Materials

A binder dedicated to Spanish, lined notebook paper, and flash cards.

2 tabs labeled for: Vocabulary lists /Notes & classwork

I want you to have a paper vocabulary list printed for each unit to build your vocabulary, and a notebook to take notes during mini-lessons, for classwork, and any questions you want to ask me.

Homework, projects, quizzes, and tests will be completed and submitted online during remote learning.

Grades

Participation, preparation for class & speaking in the target language.

Homework- 5 pts. / Only 50% credit for late assignments.

Skits & presentations- 50 pts.

Projects- 25-50 pts. / 10% off each day it's late

Mini- quiz - 10 pts.

Quiz- 25 pts.

Test- 100 pts./ must be made up within 1 week

Learning a new language is a gift and a journey! I look forward to embarking on this journey with you!

